Designs Job
for Schools

Chairman
Alliston
advertisement to construct a new industrial arts building, an $18,000 and acceptance of lowest bid removal of trees on school property occupied the board of the Separate Municipal School District at a brief meeting Monday night.

On the proposed industrial arts building will be resolved in the office of the superintendent, J. D. McCulloch, until Thursday, July 6, when it will be publicly opened.
Only three members were present, Robert Hamilton, J. W.
Harris, Jr., and Alliston; Maurice Arnes and Don McCulloch were out of town.

Alliston who has been a trustee for 12 years said he was responding because of ill health and the stress of his job as county commissioner. He explained a recent operation had impaired his speech and felt he could not be the kind of job he would like to do on the board.

City Commission Council has received Alliston's letter of resignation but has not yet acted on it.

A resolution was adopted and action prepared to borrow $18,000 from city funds, $7,500 for the new industrial arts building, $4,000 for school repairs, $5,500 to repay a loan and $1,000 for removal of trees, Superintendent McCulloch explained. The loan will be for a period of five years with interest not to exceed four per cent. All members of Commission Council attended the meeting.

By S. S. Rutherford of $100 for removing trees from High grounds was accepted.
Only other bid was for $890 from Frank Thielen. McCulloch said there were about 20 trees to be removed including stumps and the ground would be leveled.

It was also voted to advertise for bids to move the present industrial arts building because it is in the way of the new building. McCulloch said the old building could be used if moved until the new one is completed which will probably be arrived the first of next year.

Plane Buzzing
Not Explained

Not a single clue has been uncovered by police as to the identity of an airplane which buzzed the area persistently about 1:30 a.m. Friday awakening local residents.

Sheriff Gerald V. Price explained that his office had made checks with the Coast Guard and Foster Air Force Base in an effort to track down the pilot of the aircraft to no avail.

Gary Blaize Wins
Navy Appointment

Charles Gary Blaize, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. (Cotton) Blaize, formerly of Bay St. Louis, now living in Tulsa, Okla., is the recipient of a principal appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

A 1961 graduate of St. Stanislaus College, Gary was one of three students from that school to compete for appointments. A series of College Board examinations and a strenuous physiological examination which he received at the Pensacola Naval Station were among the requirements for completion of the appointment which Gary received from Sen. James A. Eastland.

An honor student in high school, Gary graduated seventh in his class. Active in the Confraternity of the Sacred Heart, he served as treasurer of the organization and also as treasurer of the faculty and staff of the Rock-a-Chow during the spring semester by being chosen student of the month.

Gary also participated in various extracurricular activities including the school's Talent Night and was distribution manager of the Rock-a-Chow for two consecutive years.

Also excelling in sports, he played the guard position on the starting lineup for the varsity and cagers during the season and won several honors for St. Stanislaus in track and field events.
Gary displayed admirable team spirit in football and baseball as well.

He will report to the academy on June 24.

Parking Meters Off

END OF PARKING METERS? — Bill Johnson, city employee, remove one of the last of the Main Street Monday night as Bill, Jr., looks on.

Council Plans 60-Day Review

Removal of the controversial parking meters on Beach Blvd. and Main Street took place Monday night following City Commission Council's authorization on the complaint of a number of merchants in the area that they were adversely affecting their businesses.

Council agreed to the move several months ago when the merchants presented a petition objecting to the meters but the machines remained in place until the city's one-year purchase-lease contract with Duncan Parking Meter Co. expired. Merchants renewed their plea before council last week.

Mayor John Scalfie said council had contacted the parking meter firm and been given the

Bay Council Joins Fight On L&N Cut

Bay St. Louis Commission Council followed steps taken last week by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and Waveland Town Council and passed a resolution this week protesting to the L and N Railroad removal of a clerk-operator at its station between 5 p. m. and 8 a. m. All bodies have requested one be provided between 6 a. m. and 11 p. m. daily.

The resolution came as an aftermath of an announcement by the Land N that effective July 1 tickets could be purchased only from 8 a. m. until noon and from 1 to 5 p. m. A caretaker would be on duty from 5:40 to 7:40 a. m. and from 5 to 11 p. m.

Auto Check Deadline Nearing Fast

With the deadline close at hand, July 1, motor vehicle owners are scrambling to have their automobiles inspected at any one of the five appointed inspecting places in the county.

To date 1,733 vehicles have passed inspection at the five authorized service stations, N. A. Perniclaro having 91, Gulf Chevrolet 714, Sam Perniclaro 570, Batey's Service Station 147 and Porter's Service Station 211.

Deputy Sheriff Gerald Price, Jr., said there are approximately 4,000 vehicles registered in the county.

Sheriff Reports All Quiet

In sharp contrast to his fellow sheriff in Harrison County whose chief was dynamited early Sunday, Sheriff Gerald V. Price reported little activity in his office.

Authorities arrived today from Morgan County, Ill., to take custody of Bonnie Swan, 28, held here for failure to pay fines imposed on her by Beat 5 Justice of the Peace Nellus Rhodes. The woman was charged with having no driver's license and failing to yield right of way in a traffic accident on US 90 about two weeks ago.

She is wanted in Illinois for obtaining narcotics by misrepresentation and waived extradition.

Fall From Bridge Fatal to Negro

A 61 year old Bay St. Louis Negro died about 5:45 p.m. Tuesday in Hancock General Hospital after being struck by a cross-tie while he was fishing on the Land N railroad bridge.

Chief Deputy Gerald V. Price, Jr., reported that John Walker, 614 Booker St., was hit over the left eye about 9:40 a.m. by one of a load of cross-ties being pulled by a motor car operated by Charles N. Seymour of Biloxi, a railroad employee.

The blow knocked Walker unconscious and he fell into the bay near a skiff occupied by J. H. Mamon of Baton Rouge. Manton pulled the man from the water assisted by A. L. Black, L and N employee who climbed down the bridge.

The man was examined by a physician on the beach and was

Pay Hikes, Farve Topics

Vote Retirement Plan For Hospital Workers

Employees of Hancock General Hospital will be brought under the state retirement system, becoming the final group of county employees to receive this coverage.

The plan was approved by hospital trustees Tuesday night after J. A. Walker of the State Retirement Board outlined the program, its cost to the hospital and employees following a conference during which all but two persons voted in favor of the Social Security supplement.

On the motion of Treasurer K. W. Pepperdine it was voted to adopt the system effective July 1 with retroactive coverage to Jan. 1, 1958, at 3.2 per cent of the participating employees' salaries.

Walker explained that future coverage will cost the employee four per cent of all pay over $100 a month with a minimum of $1 and the hospital will contribute 2.5 per cent. If all employees participate the cost will amount to 2.5 per cent of the hospital payroll of about $9,000 a month.

The county came under the plan when it was inaugurated in 1952 and Bay St. Louis joined last year paying at four per cent to bring all veteran employees under its benefits. Walker noted that participation will be mandatory for all employees hired in the future.

He also discussed with the board reporting fair value of meals served employees at the hospital under social security as wages of a kind, advising this would be more beneficial to the staff than by calling this benefit additional income on which they would have to pay taxes. Through this means they will get additional social security benefits at retirement. Administrator Thomas O. Logue calculated the cost at 55 cents a meal.

A review of personnel salaries with an eye to equalizing them was directed by trustees after Trustees Hubert Thielen and Secretary Norton Haas called for increasing pay of all those now making only $110 a month.

Logue said he was working on such a report to present at the conclusion of the fiscal year in September, taking into consideration average salaries over the state in hospitals of comparable size. He said he would try to have some report ready for the July 11 meeting when Thielen insisted that he wanted to equalize everyone's pay who is not making $300. Some, he declared, are making more money than they earn, questioning the need for a fulltime maintenance man at the hospital.

President T. T. Reboul, Jr., concurred with the need for an analysis of salaries but cautioned the hospital has to have enough money to pay them.

The matter of overall salaries came up when Pepperdine at the conclusion of the agenda moved to grant Sam L. Favre, Jr., attorney for the board, a new five-year contract, noting that last month the board took similar action with respect to the administrator.

"Before that, let's discuss the general personnel," Haas suggested. "Let's start about something more constructive for the neglected employees rather than the higher echelon."

Reboul remarked it was appropriate to bring up Favre's contract at this time since he was away on a trip and commended the attorney's work at the old as well as the new hospitals. Mrs. Ward seconded Pepperdine's motion but Thielen asked why not give five-year contracts to everyone from the janitors on up.

"We're opening ourselves to criticism," he contended, "but done a good job all right but this looks to me like showing."

Trustee Frank M. Selph remarked that hiring Favre was one thing but the rest of the board was appointed and he questioned.

For Week's Observance Hospital Is Lauded

Baby Hancock General Hospital, not even a year old when National Hospital Week was observed May 8-12, was singled out by the Mississippi Hospital Assn., for praise and plaudits in a bulletin issued to member hospitals describing activities during that week.

The bulletin summarized what was done here completely, enclosing also an annual report, description of physical plant, list of medical, nursing and other staff members and a history of the hospital.

Activities included four business displays: an orthopedic surgical one at Winn-Dixie, a pediatric one at Itney Jungle, poster display of dolls dressed as hospital employees at deMott's Lumber Drug, and since the Civil War Centennial was also included in that week, a mammoth nurse of that period administering to a wounded soldier in Jerome's Department Store.

Guided tours of the hospital were conducted by members of the hospital auxiliary during an open house Friday, the concluding day. Employees attended a party that night going back to a hundred years ago in costumes and decorations.

Administrator Thomas O. Logue has received a number of letters commending him for the success achieved during the week including ones from the administrators at Tunica, Jones County Hospital at Laurel, and Tipton County Hospital at Ripley.

When the hospital's board of trustees met Tuesday night Logue received a vote of congratulations for his role in bringing this status recognition to Hancock County. The motion was offered by Trustee Frank M. Selph, seconded by K. W. Pepperdine.

T. T. Reboul, Jr., president of the board of trustees, observed that preparation of the pamphlet and activities at the hospital during the week had received more credit than anything else

Federal Aid Is Granted To Bay School System

A telegram Monday from Congressman William Colmer advised J. D. McCulloch, superintendent of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District, that the U. S. Office of Education has approved a tentative entitlement of $2,801 for assistance to schools here for 1961.

The aid is authorized to schools having students whose parents are employed in federal installations in accordance with Public Law 874. McCulloch named the installations as the veterans hospitals at Gulfport and Biloxi, Keesler Air Force Base, Kaiser Aluminum Corp. and Higgins, Inc., in New Orleans, and Ingalls Shipbuilding Corp., in Pascagoula.

McCulloch noted the money is issued on a basis of $80 per student, this district have 35. It is earmarked only for building maintenance and salaries. He expects to receive an initial payment of $2,101 immediately. This is the first time Bay schools have received this aid.

Bay Bowling Center's new lanes will be opened to the public this weekend at its building on U. S. 90.

Grand opening of the 66-60 Kart track operated by Rubeen Ruiz and James Travolta on U. S. 90 near Blue Meadow Road will take place Sunday.

Edward Electric and Refrigeration Service has moved to its new building adjacent to former quarters on Union Avenue.

Floral Ceremony Unites Miss Mead, Mr. Morrison

A quiet ceremony last Friday afternoon at the Church of the Holy Spirit in Biloxi, attended by only members of both families, Miss Audrey Mary Mead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raphael Mead of New Orleans and Waveland, became the bride of George Emmett Morrison, son of Mrs. Charles Morrison of Biloxi and the late Mr. Morrison.

Rev. Patrick McAlpin officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white gladioli and greenery. Miss Mead, escorted by her father, was in a candlelight silk gown featuring an embroidered bodice and cap sleeves. She wore a matching hat of tulle and lilies of the valley and carried a white missal topped by a spray of white orchids and stephanotis.

Her only attendant, a niece, Mrs. William W. Westmarby, chose a light blue silk, matching accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Charles H. Morrison was his brother's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barrow Cousins, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, entertained at their home after the ceremony with only the families present. Mrs. Mead received in lilac lace accented with white accessories while the groom's mother selected a silk print and ivory accessories. Their flowers were orange and white.

WSCS Honors Mrs. Kimbrell As Farewell

Surprise party complimenting Mrs. S. Paul Kimbrell highlighted the meeting Wednesday of the Morning Circle of Main Street Methodist Church. The Kimbrells plan to move to New Orleans soon but will retain their home on Terrace St., Waveland, as a weekend and summer residence.

Mrs. Orla Winward presided during a brief business session which was attended by members of the Afternoon and Evening Circles.

Mrs. Wallace Chevis, president of the Womens Society of Christian Service, presented Mrs. Kimbrell with a silver bowl as a farewell gift and in appreciation for her service to the WSCS.

She also received a corsage.

The lace covered tea table was in Fellowship Hall where provisions of summer flowers were used at intervals throughout the main room.

Centering the table was a bouquet of variegated day lilies and all appointments were in crystal.

GP-14 Races Slated

First races with the new GP-14 boats are scheduled at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club at 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. Saturday. It was announced following a meeting of fleet members Wednesday night.

Leslie Pepperdene, newly elected junior member of the fleet, said no eliminations are scheduled, each of the 28 races set for the season being a trophy race. Ten members plan to participate in race week at Gulfport Yacht Club July 1-7.

Those present included Capt. J. W. Clark, Dr. W. L. McFarland, Charles Lozano, William Pittman, Jr., Paul Kimbrell, Kenneth W. Pepperdene, Walter W. Rausch, Jack Gordon, Gerald Kennedy, William Pittman, III, Bill Kimbrell, Basil Kennedy and Ann Clark and Rippe Rausch.

Mrs. Lella Boudin of Pass Christian assumed duties last week as dietitian at Hancock General Hospital. She is a spring graduate of Mississippi Southern College with a major in home economics and minor in institutional management.

Mrs. Ruth Meilieu who moved from dietitian to the nursing floor following an illness has been forced to resign from the staff on her physician's advice, Administrator T. O. Logue reported.

Logue said Mrs. Marjorie Hedrick, office manager, preferred the IBM machine and Conrad Maffray, part-time bookkeeper, outlined his reasons for wanting the higher priced equipment.

Logue reported that against a 12-month average patient load of 21 per day, the May figure of 13.4 was the lowest yet. In an effort to cut costs he had sent a number of employees on vacations and given leaves of absence where possible.

Haas and Pepperdene reported on the Mississippi Hospital Trustees convention they attended in Jackson with Rep. Clarence Laddner. Logue told of a plan to distribute baby books through the hospital, announced he would be on active duty with the Army July 2-16 and was authorized to seek bids on consumable items for the coming year for opening at 10 a. m. Thursday, July 27. He also announced a donation, from Mrs. Baldwin Woods, recent patient.

Retailers To Meet

The Retail Merchants Assn. will meet at 7:30 p. m. next Thursday in the Chamber of Commerce office.

Sheriff Reports...

State patrolmen here and in Louisiana, plus county police, have launched a search for the Negroes.

On Haas' motion, seconded by Clifton Saucier, bid of International Business Machines of $400.50 for a 13-inch carriage electric typewriter and Friden Co.'s price of $369 for an adding machine were accepted. Office Supply Co. of Gulfport was the only other bidder, offering $294 on the typewriter and $295 on the adding machine.

Logue said Mrs. Marjorie Hedrick, office manager, preferred the IBM machine and Conrad Maffray, part-time bookkeeper, outlined his reasons for wanting the higher priced equipment.

Teen times

Sports seem to occupy much of the spare time of the younger set here and hereabouts. Swimming, water skiing and sailing are always fun. Skating and bowling have been taking up by many more recently and the latest is the rebirth of interest in tennis. Instructions at City Hall Park will begin Friday with Mr. Bob DeGravelles as instructor...there will be classes in the afternoon and at night (lights are to be installed) each Friday...42 registered for these classes last month...more sessions may be scheduled later.

Little League baseball teams are also loaded to capacity with the exception of a few vacancies in the 15-16 year age brackets. These games are played Tuesday night and Sunday afternoon.

Lynn Rose and Sandra Seuzeneau are having a wonderful time participating in activities related to the big fishing rodeo to be held on July 1-4...both girls have been selected princesses and are attending banquets, picnics, tours and swimming parties in connection with the event. They have received an invitation to visit Memphis, Tenn., but don't know if they will be able to squeeze the visit in their busy calendar of activities.

Piccola Dumestre Detrich presented her spring dance revue last week—Dorcel Russell and Kathy Saux were among those displaying their terpsichorean skills.

Judy Berns, who lived with her grandparents in Waveland while a junior at Bay High, writes fabulous letters from her new home in California...she loves it and has glimpsed numerous movie stars in her travels.

Now that school is finally out in the Crescent City Lizzie and David Dahlgren, Mary Lou Napoli, Colleen and Paullette Glass, the McMurrays, Sandra Lozano, Linda Herbig, Ronnie Steimle and many more will be spending the summer here.

Ann Bryant and Kathleen Schaefer were among local girls attending an FHA conference in Hattiesburg last week.

Aggie Bourgeois was among the leading poppy salesgirls in the recent Poppy Day sponsored by the Legion auxiliary.

A gay time was had by all who attended the dance at the Clermont Harbor-Lakeshore Youth Center last Friday night—the Night Owls band from New Orleans played for dancing from 7-11 p.m.

Bible Schools are entertaining the little ones at present—Kay Dorich is assisting at Waveland Baptist and Edith Traub at Main Street Methodist.

Patsy and Barbara Noonan returned from St. Louis, Mo., last Tuesday where they were visiting their grandparents.

Mildred Vaughan, a third grade student at North Bay Elementary is a bit younger than the usual run of teen timers—but as she and Linda Luxich stood by Jimmy Jungle on Poppy Day from 9 a.m. 'til after 1:30 that afternoon selling a whopping number of poppies we think that both of these young ladies are deserving of mention.

Congratulations to Basil Kennedy, recipient of the American Legion Award in the 8th grade class at Christ Episcopal. Also Carol Western who was elected to office at a recent MYF meeting.

Cindy Muller of Kansas City, Mo., will spend several weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Howard of Clermont Harbor.

Peggy Garcia will be the guest of brother David and wife Pat while she attends summer school at Nicholls High in New Orleans for nine weeks.

Linda Herbig of New Orleans and Clermont Harbor walked off with just about all the honors when she graduated from Colton Junior High last Friday—she won the honor for finishing with the highest number of points and a 3.4 scholastic average in the YOUTH PROGRAM—Gayten Roberts of Pascagoula, Methodist youth director and a junior at University of Mississippi majoring in philosophy, plans a youth program for the summer months at Main Street Methodist Church. He will conduct the program for ten weeks which includes training and giving youths experience in presenting their own type programs that take in worship, recreation and service. He also is organizing children's and youth choirs. From left are Edith Traub, Warren Traub, Roberts, Carol Western and Harry Shattuck.

WHAT WONDERFUL THINGS ARE WITHIN HIS REACH!

Ever see a child's face when he reaches a light switch for the first time?

He makes the lights go on, go off, with the flick of a quivering finger. What an adventure—what an accomplishment—what a thrilling new power!

He doesn't realize it fully, but that light switch is symbolic of much of his future. In his lifetime, electricity is likely to operate electric helpers we can't even imagine now—just as today's electric living is beyond the dreams of just a generation ago.

And the wonder of it is that while the price of almost everything else has been going up, the average price per kilowatt-hour of electricity has been coming down. In fact, today your electric service is about the biggest value in your entire budget.

In Mississippi

430% INCREASE

in farm income sparked by rural electrification

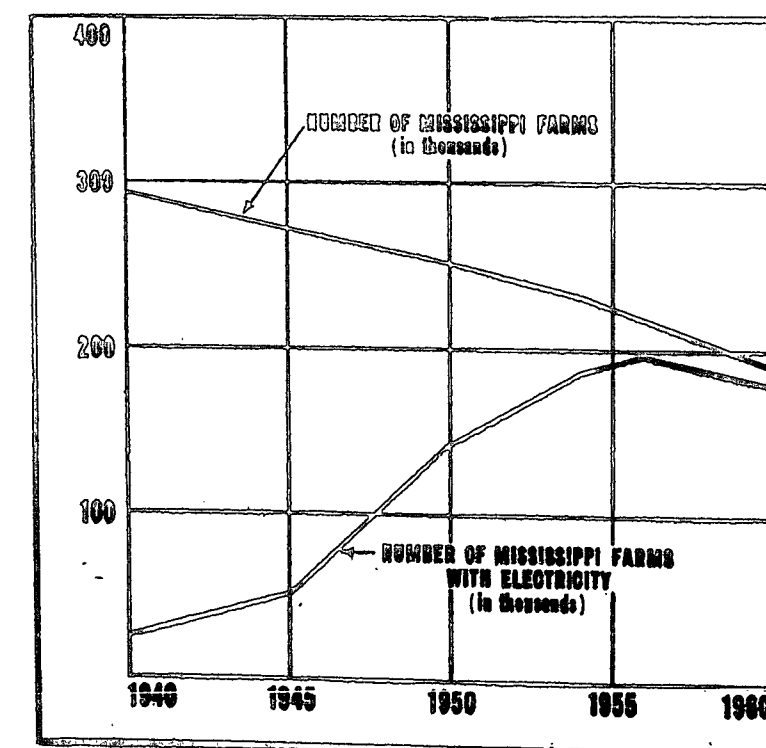

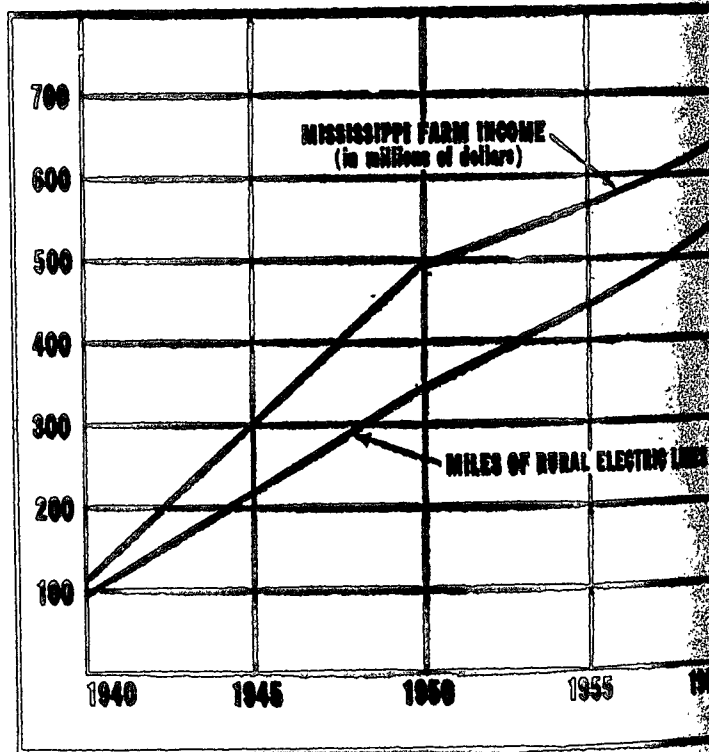

Vastly increased income for the farm and rural areas of Mississippi has come as a direct result of rural electrification. Since 1940, farm income has increased 430%.

That increase in income has come in almost exact proportion with the increase in the number of miles of rural electric lines in the state. (See chart at right.)

In counties in which more than 50% of the total labor force is engaged in farming, income has increased even more: 481% since 1940.

Mississippi's Electric Power Associations have lightened the load and brightened the way for rural life. Rural electrification can readily be cited as "the most important single economic development in the history of the state."

Many of Mississippi's farm and rural industrial operations could not exist today without the low-cost power supplied by the state's Electric Power Associations.

To further emphasize the role of rural electrification, supplied by these Associations, is the fact that while farm income was rapidly increasing, the total number of farms was decreasing. (See chart at left.)

Mississippi's non-profit Electric Power Associations are locally owned. They are controlled by the people they serve. They were formed with borrowed money—money which is being repaid with interest.

Today these Electric Power Associations serve almost a million Mississippians. Electric power supplied through these associations has been largely responsible for the state's increased income. Every business, every individual in the state has profited from the formation of these Electric Power Associations.

Alma Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN

It's still good out there — at Half Moon, the Keys and elsewhere — but it seems you have to be in the right place at the right time. The sun has been shining, the water is calm, the weather is perfect, but the fishing is just not what it used to be. Apparently, the fishing is better after daybreak when the water is cool. River and bayou fishing is fairly good and the catch is being caught on worms. Soft shell crabs and speck are being caught on worms. Soft shell crabs and speck are being caught on worms. Soft shell crabs and speck are being caught on worms.

Chamber Prexy Eluded

Chamber of Commerce prexy, says he tangled with a six-pound red last Wednesday in the mouth of Bayou Lafourche. He got him up to the side of the boat and was on speaking terms with him when he reached for his net to boat the monster. The fish was so big that it was a struggle to get it out of the water. The prexy was laughing as he held the fish. The fish was a real beauty. The prexy was laughing as he held the fish.

Quintini Conquers

Ferry Quintini got his share of specks at the Keys last week. He caught a four and a half pounder that Perry says is just about the biggest speckled trout he ever caught — at least since Marie was a kid.

Paul Reynaud Paces Krankey to Upset

A smashing homer by Paul Reynaud with one aboard sprang Krankey to an upset 14-8 victory Monday night over Southern Realty in men's softball league play at City Ball Park. Southern Realty, composed mostly of former Youth Center players, was fresh from copping the champion's trophy Sunday in the Sideliners' Tournament of Champions but were unable to stop the Krankeys. Winning pitcher was Bruce Pavre.

Guilty to Food, Drug Act Charge

Two Bay St. Louis men pleaded guilty before U. S. District Judge Sidney C. Mize Tuesday in Gulfport to charges of violating food and drug regulations.

Ben T. Wood, 29, and Howard T. Wood, 52, were found guilty of selling "beefies" at the Truck Town Cafe and Service Station on U. S. 90.

The younger Wood was fined $700 and sentenced to six months, the fine and sentence suspended and he was placed on a 12-month probation. The elder Wood was fined $400 and received the same sentence, but he too was put on a year's probation.

Moran's went into the lead in the Women's Softball League Sunday night at City Ball Park winning on a forfeit from Bay Independents who failed to field a full team while Don's dropped the nightcap to Jerome's 13-3.

It was Don's first loss of the season against two wins which dropped them into second place but the lasses will have an opportunity to get back into a tie for first tonight when they battle Moran's in the nightcap.

When the Bay Independents could not field a team a group of brave volunteers, including Ronnie Peterson, played the Moran girls but were beaten 4-3—the boys had to bat lefthanded and the umpires were women.

Winning pitcher for Jerome was Glenda Kennedy and although pitching a beautiful game Joyce Garcia was the loser.

Last Thursday Moran downed Our Lady of the Gulf 5-3. OLG led Moran 2-0 until the fifth inning when Moran opened up scoring three runs and two more in the sixth. Dale Seller pitched for OLG and didn't give up a hit until the fifth. Winner was Bertie Faye Cameron.

In the nightcap Jerome beat Bay Independents 24-12.

Schedule for today is OLG vs. Bay Independents and Don's vs. Moran. Sunday Bay Independents vs. Don's and Jerome vs. OLG.

NCCW Work Cited in Talk To Deanery

The activities and functions of the National Council of Catholic Women were explained Wednesday by Miss Edina Rodrigue of McComb, a member of the national board, to the West Coast Deanery at its quarterly meeting in the cafeteria of Our Lady of the Gulf Elementary School.

She traced the organization of the NCCW, noting it was founded shortly after World War I when Catholic women decided to continue work they had done during the conflict. Since, the organization has grown monumentally, now embracing universal activities.

Mrs. George Stevenson, president, introduced Rev. Kevin Reid, a pastor at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, who welcomed the members.

Parish reports were presented and a discussion of a joint meeting with the East Coast Deanery in September was incomplete.

2 Negroes Hurt In Collision At Logtown

Two Logtown Negroes were seriously injured about 5:15 p.m. last Friday when the pulpwood truck they were in was in a collision with a station wagon on Logtown Road near Rt. 604.

Ben Christmas and Bubba Keyes were taken by Pernicaro ambulance to Hancock General Hospital where it is reported Christmas is recovering from severe head injuries. Keyes was transferred to Memorial Hospital at Gulfport for treatment of internal injuries.

Names of the occupants of the station wagon were not available after repeated efforts to contact Bear I. Constable Harlan Dean, N. A. Pernicaro, owner of the ambulance, said a couple and three children were in the car, from Bogalusa, La., none of whom were injured.

Pernicaro estimated damage to the station wagon as about $400, but was not able to say about the truck owned by Christmas.

Refuge from flood -- This home belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beam which was almost washed away during the February floods in Hattiesburg is being moved this week to property the couple has purchased on Lakeshore Road between Gulfview School and U. S. 90 with assistance of the American Red Cross' disaster program. The Beams formerly lived here for many years. Water rose to five feet in the house during the floods and pictures show extent of damage.

Home Agent Notes

By MARCIA HUGHES

Types of interior design and construction that can be used in low-cost housing were tested in a small housing experiment of the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Eight years ago, housing specialists planned and built five different farm houses for dairy workers and their families living at the agricultural Research Center, Beltsville, Md. The families helped the specialists evaluate the houses and make these suggestions:

Homemakers having large floor-to-ceiling windows in their houses found there was too little wall space in a small house.

The large windows made it hard to protect the interiors from sunlight. The homemakers complained of furnishings fading and of excessive heat and glare. Adequate draperies on the inside or trees, awnings or a roof overhang would have helped solve these problems.

In the house that featured "open planning" the family found it hard to live in a small house with partial walls or no walls separating activity areas. This arrangement offered little opportunity to shut out noise and not enough privacy for individual family members.

For example, the dining and living areas were combined. The dining table doubled as a desk and work table, and there was a television set in the living area. The family didn't like the arrangement because of the confusion of so many activities in one small room. All families agreed that the dining and living areas should be separated.

Homemakers like the kitchens in the homes. They had been planned according to federal and state research for adequate counter space and storage space. By standards developed since the houses were built, the closets, linen closets, coat closets and utility areas were often too small. The homemakers agreed with these findings.

For example, in one two-bedroom house the homemaker said bedroom closets were not adequate. Each had 4 feet 9 inches of rod space and the house had no other storage for out-of-season clothing. Housing specialists say the minimum for such a situation is now 7 feet 6 inches of rod space in each bedroom.

CAN YOU AFFORD IT?

Both a living room and family room? Before you answer, consider these figures from one man in housing. When there is a family room, the living room is only 7 percent of the time. It is used 35 percent of the time when there is no family room. That's expensive living for 7 percent of the time, isn't it?

Decrees Given

Nine divorce decrees have been entered so far by Judge William Hewes during the June term of Chancery Court which convened Monday. They are as follows:

Harold J. Bourgeois vs. Ethel Bourgeois; Mary A. Robitschek vs. Fred W. Robitschek; Lucien Thibodeaux vs. Estelle P. Thibodeaux; Mrs. Leontine Carleton Larson vs. Jens Knud Larson; Milton L. Lizahe vs. Ruby Newbern Lizahe; Hilda Brogren Spears vs. E. J. Spears; Lauren Campbell vs. Paul Campbell; Ellen P. Davisworth vs. George A. Davisworth, sr., and Dorothy Mae Necaise vs. Emil Rogers Necaise.

Bay-Waveland Garden

Cited by Jackson Paper

Bay-Waveland Garden, Club is the topic of a feature article in last Sunday's edition of the Jackson Clarion-Ledger which cites the various civic accomplishments of the local club since its organization in 1938 by a group of 18 women. It is described as one of the most active garden organizations in the state.

Information for the article was submitted by Mrs. Roscoe F. Gray, president, Mrs. Gordon Gleim and Mrs. C. R. Beyer.

During World War II, members concentrated on war work, sponsoring War Bond teas and other money making projects, selling $25,000 worth of bonds in a single afternoon. Active also in local hospital work, it raised funds and furnished a three-bed children's ward with a bronze plaque on the memorializing Hancock Club World War II service.

Among the first projects in the state to build a conservation camp, it sponsored and built a roadside park of 1.5 acres presently is working on a bridge to connect the highway department.

Other activities include the annual coast pilgrimage to Bay St. Louis, junior gardeners, lighting contests and in addition to flower work.
